RENEW TODAY

We are excited to present our 28th season of outstanding professional symphonic performances in 2022-2023. This is a year of dynamic guest artists, stunning visuals and solo performances from our very own award-winning orchestra members who will delight, entertain and inspire you.

Treasured composers Beethoven, Mozart, and Tchaikovsky meet innovators of today including GRAMMY® Award-winners Dave Brubeck, Chris Brubeck, and Mason Bates. Also, remember to share the joy of our newly established season opening tradition, a Winter Spectacular!

We invite you to renew your subscription and retain your special seats at the same price as last season.

We are so happy to be with you LIVE in our venues, and can't wait to celebrate musical triumphs with you!

Sun., Dec. 4, 2022 - RCPAC Camarillo

Michael Christie, conductor

Korngold | Snowman Overture

Debussy | The Snow is Dancing

Tchaikovsky | Symphony No. 1 "Winter Dreams"
Allegro tranquillo

ROCOCO VARIATIONS

An elegant program of kaleidoscopic variations and stunning virtuosity by Tchaikovsky and Ginastera, featuring guest conductor Enluis Montes Olivar.

Sat., Jan. 28, 2023 - BAPAC Thousand Oaks

Sun., Jan. 29, 2023 - RCPAC Camarillo

Enluis Montes Olivar, conductor

Romero | Fuga con Pajarillo

Tchaikovsky | Variations on a Rococo Theme

Zhou Tian | Cello Concerto, "Flowing Sleeves"

Ginastera | Variaciones concertantes

SYMPHONIE FANTASTIQUE

Berlioz's passionate and dramatic Symphony Fantastique is said to represent the love of and obsession of his later-to-be wife. We also feature a new fantastical collaboration of an orchestra concerto and animated/live action film which illuminates how instruments are played, performed live and composed by GRAMMY® Award-winning Mason Bates and animated by Academy Award®-nominated Jim Capobianco. We honor the passion for innovation and commitment to education of our beloved Founding Music Director Boris Brodt with the performance of "Nimrod."

Sat., Mar. 4, 2023 - BAPAC Thousand Oaks

Sun., Mar. 5, 2023 - RCPAC Camarillo

Michael Christie, conductor

Elgar | "Nimrod" from Enigma Variations

Mason Bates | *Philharmonia Fantastique:
The Making of the Orchestra*

Berlioz | Symphonie Fantastique

BINGING ON MOZART

No matter what genre of music he composed, Mozart did so with masterful skill - operas, choral works, concertos, chamber music, solo songs, sonatas, chamber works, and symphonies - making him what many consider the greatest composer in history. Highlights from more than six hundred works will take you on a Grand Tour of Mozart's musical genius.

Sat., Apr. 15, 2023 - BAPAC Thousand Oaks

Sun., Apr. 16, 2023 - RCPAC Camarillo

Michael Christie, conductor

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

Symphony No. 25, Allegro con brio

"Non più andrai" from The Marriage of Figaro

Piano Sonata No. 11 "Alla Turca," Andante grazioso

Piano Concerto No. 24, Allegro

Eine Kleine Nachtmusik, Allegro

Clarinet Concerto: Rondo

SPARKLING CLASSICAL

A program of fun, fanciful works that shimmer and delight our senses. Who better to capture this whimsical spirit than Van Cliburn International Medal Winner, pianist Sean Chen.

Sat., Sept. 9, 2023 - BAPAC Thousand Oaks

Sun., Sept. 10, 2023 - RCPAC Camarillo

Michael Christie, conductor

Sean Chen, piano

Strauss | Burleske for Piano and Orchestra

Françaix | Eight Exotic Dances

Concertino for Piano and Orchestra

Prokofiev | Symphony No. 1 "Classical"

BEETHOVEN TO BRUBECK

The Brubecks' one-movement piece fully integrates sweeping melodies with 102 striking photographic images of or by Ansel Adams. Few people realize that Adams trained to be a classical musician, a fact which greatly influenced his work. Our season finishes with Beethoven's Symphony No. 5, forever changing what people thought music could do, what music could be.

Sat., Nov. 4, 2023 - BAPAC Thousand Oaks

Sun., Nov. 5, 2023 - RCPAC Camarillo
