...and other favorites

BINGING ON MOZART

No matter what genre of music he composed, Mozart did so with masterful skill - operas, choral works, concertos, chamber music, solo songs, sonatas, chamber works, and symphonies - making him what many consider the greatest composer in history. Highlights from more than six hundred works will take you on a Grand Tour of Mozart's musical genius.

Sat., Apr. 15, 2023 - BAPAC Thousand Oaks

Sun., Apr. 16, 2023 - RCPAC Camarillo

Michael Christie, conductor

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

- Symphony No. 25, Allegro con brio

SYMPHONIE FANTASTIQUE

Berlioz's passionate and dramatic Symphony Fantastique is said to represent his love and obsession for his later-to-be wife. We also feature a new fantastical collaboration of an orchestra concerto and animated/live action film which illuminates how instruments are played, performed live and composed by GRAMMY® Award-winning Mason Bates and animated by Academy Award®-nominated Jim Capobianco. We honor the passion for innovation and commitment to education of our beloved Founding Music Director Boris Brott with the performance of "Nimrod."

Michael Christie, conductor

Sat., Mar. 4, 2023 - BAPAC Thousand Oaks

Sun., Mar. 5, 2023 - RCPAC Camarillo

- Elgar | "Nimrod" from Enigma Variations
- Mason Bates | Philharmonia Fantastique: The Making of an Orchestra
- Berlioz | Symphonie Fantastique

BEETHOVEN TO BRUBECK

American photo legend Ansel Adams and the iconic Brubeck jazz family talents combine sweeping melodies with 102 striking photographic images projected over the orchestra. Few people realize that Adams trained to be a classical musician, a fact which greatly influenced his work. Beethoven's mighty Fifth is the most recognized piece of music in history and forever changed what people thought music could do, what music could be.

Sat., Nov. 4, 2023 - BAPAC Thousand Oaks

Sun., Nov. 5, 2023 - RCPAC Camarillo

Michael Christie, conductor

Featuring the photos of Ansel Adams

- Dave and Chris Brubeck | Ansel Adams: America
- Beethoven | Symphony No. 5

MASTERS OF MELODY

Timeless melodies lead us from the heights of ecstasy to the depths of despair. Mozart's "Jupiter" Symphony and classic melodies from Mexico and The Great American Songbook connect us to our past and carry us through our lives.

Sat., Oct. 1, 2022 - BAPAC Thousand Oaks

Sun., Oct. 2, 2022 - RCPAC Camarillo

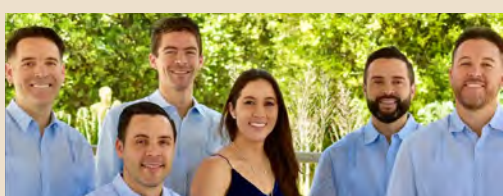

Michael Christie, conductor

Hermanos Herrera, guest ensemble

Music from The Great American Songbook and Beyond

- Bottesini | Double Bass Concerto No. 2
- Mozart | Symphony No. 41, "Jupiter"

ODE TO JOY

A celebration of unity. Beethoven's triumphant Symphony No. 9 and Esmail's My Sister's Voice explore themes of human connection beyond borders and the passage of time.
